CHURCH

LOVING. RELEVANT. LIFE-GIVING.

At Next Level Church, we come from a wide range of personal and professional backgrounds—many of us never worked for a church until we found our calling here. But we all believe we're called to lead in a church that is loving, relevant, and life-giving, and we believe we're infinitely better together than we are apart. Are you ready to be part of the incredible things God's doing here?

NLC is one church in multiple locations. We embrace leadership and that starts with our Central Kids Admin Team. We are looking for catalytic leaders with a passion for kids who can build teams and identify high-capacity leaders to build even more teams. These leaders are the most crucial carriers of the Next Level DNA and work endlessly to lead their team in partnering with families in leading the next generation into a growing relationship with Jesus. The Central Kids Admin is responsible for the overall administrative direction of NLC Kids, its team members and its alignment with the vision of NLC.

- An individual who can motivate others to action and be a great vision-caster
- A "surrendered type A" who is driven and self-motivated, however also teachable and eager to be developed on an ongoing basis

YOU WILL:

- Resource NLC locations with the materials they need each weekend
- Build team health across locations
- Participate in creative planning to constantly improve and grow NLC Kids from a Central standpoint
- Assist in training NLC Kids Coordinators in order to equip them for success
